

*For preschool programs provided by a school, the service should keep child attendance records in accordance with their state education law or department policy.

* Does not apply if the insurance is provided by a state or territory government.